7-7:30 (Channel 5) — New Mexico Outdoors. News and updates for New Mexico sportsmen with John Davis.

7-7:30 (Channel 13) — It's The Easter Beagle, Charlie Brown proclaims the Peanuts special for the entire family to enjoy. The question is, however, is it really Snoopy? (Repeat)

7-8 (Channel 7) — Redd Foxx and Robert Hegyes join the regulars on The Brady Bunch Hour.

7-9 (Channel 4) — The Ingal's and Edwards leave behind the Little House On The Prairie during bad times to go to the gold fields, in a good two-hour edition of the show, directed by Michael Landon. More focus on the adults here.

7:30-8 (Channel 13) — Rikki-Tikki-Tavi is one of those beautifully animated stories from Kipling's Jungle Book, all about a mongoose and his defense of his loved ones from cobras. (Repeat)

8-8:30 (Channel 13) — Maude (Beatrice Arthur) spreads joy on the New York subways until a black woman (Marlene Warfield) she has been talking to apparently steals her wallet. And here is Maude looking for a woman with pride in her "roots" to be the new Findley housekeeper. It's a funny show and Miss Warfield is a delight.

8-9 (Channel 5) — Six American Families is a fascinating documentary series focusing on six households across the country, reflecting in microcosm the strengths and tensions in family life. The opener features "The Paschiak Family of Chicago," in which the children forfeit family tradition for new worlds.

8-9 (Channel 7) — Most Wanted is all about highly explosive caches of arms and ammunition in six bunkers around the now panic-stricken city. It's a run-of-the-mill show, with an explosive quality in its implications, if not in actuality.

8:30-9 (Channel 13) — All's Fair has Richard Crenna jealous and upset by the "sleep over" generation, mostly because an old friend of Charlie's (Bernadette Peters), a good-looking young man (Mark Harmon), is using the couch in her apartment. Dialogue and performances are happy. (Repeat)

9-10 (Channel 4) — Dean Martin's Red Hot Scandals of 1926, Part Two is more or less a continuation of an earlier Dino special. It's lively and rowdy and has a guest roster that includes Abe Vigoda, Jonathan Winters, Hermione Baddeley, Dom

DeLuise, Georgia Engel and the Goldiggers.

9-10 (Channel 5) — The mystery of the Eustace diamonds is compounded on The Pallisers when another robbery takes place. Then, Lizzie Eustace (Sarah Badel) is abandoned by Lord George (Terence Alexander) and by her fiance Lord Fawn (Derek Jacobi). (Part X)

9-10 (Channel 7) — Harold Gould gets to be a sheik in all his splendor on The Feather And Father Gang. They are involved in the world of art forgery to get the killer (a wealthy man who likes to just look at his art) of a dealer. It's all handled with a light touch. Gould, as usual, is marvelous.

10-11 (Channel 5) Soundstage: "Melissa Manchester/Al Jarreau." Up-and-coming pop vocalist and songwriter Melissa Manchester sings some of her own compositions. Joining her is Al Jarreau, a newcomer who is attracting attention for his pop-soul recordings.

11-11:30 (Channel 5) — Black Journal. The programs utilize interviews, commentary, quizzes, public opinion polls, film and video tape to examine how Afro-American events, personalities, issues and movements have influenced American life.

11:30-12:30 (Channel 13) — CBS Late Movie: Kojak: Before the Devil Knows, starring Telly Savalas, Kevin Dobson and Henry Darrow. A cat burglar successfully steals one million dollars in government bonds and becomes a target of his own fence, his latest victims, a professional killer and the police. (1974)

12:30-1:30 (Channel 13) — CBS Late Movie Continued: The New Healers, starring Leif Erickson, Robert Foxworth and Kate Johnson. A paramedic team settled in a rural town where they are largely ignored by the townspeople, who want to be treated by a "Medical doctor" and not by "amateurs." Then, disaster strikes the community. A dam breaks, men are seriously injured and they urgently need medical treatment. (1972)

Tuesday

2:30-4:30 (Channel 7) —

Dialing for Dollars Movie: Pride of St. Louis, starring Dan Dailey and Joanne Dru. The life story of Cardinal hurler Jerome Herman (Dizzy) Dean of the famous "Gas House era," who managed to get himself into daffy situations on and off the diamond. Worth seeing. (1951)
