

YOU'RE AN OGRE. Carrie Domenico as the girl accuses Carol Ann Trinca, as the desk clerk, Mrs. Oxenham, because she won't help search for a missing grandfather in this scene from "Hot 1 Baltimore." The off-Broadway comedy hit has its premiere tonight at 8:15 at Salt City Playhouse's Performing Arts Center.

Celebrities to stage vaudeville show here

Song and dance star Donald O'Connor toplines the new edition of Roy Radin's Vaudeville '77. The All-American Family Show, when it comes to Nottingham High School Auditorium Nov. 12 for a performance at 8:30 p.m.

The parade of celebrities joining O'Connor are Billy Barty, The Goldiggers, Dick Haymes, Stanley Myron Handelman, Jackie Vernon and The Drifters.

Barty, a three-foot, nine-inch package of talent, sings, dances, does impersonations, plays drums, does comedy and, outside the Radin show, is a dramatic actor.

He began in movies when he was three and, by the age of 12, had 120 films to his credit, as well as having performed in vaudeville throughout the U.S. and Canada.

Entered College But in 1942, he quit show business to finish high school, then entered college in Los Angeles. Despite his height, he played football and basketball.

Barty has appeared as a regular on the children's tv series H.R. Puf'n'Stuf, the Bugaloos and Sid Sigmund and the Sea Monster. His film credits of recent years are "The Day of the Locust," "Won Ton Ton, the Dog Who Saved Hollywood" and "W.C. Fields and Me."

Haymes retains his mellow singing voice that brought him fame in the Forties. In the past few years, he has also done dramatic acting on television.

The comedy is handled by deadpan-style Handelman and Vernon, nicknamed by Johnny Carson "Mister Excitement."

On Dean Martin's Show

The Goldiggers, who came to national attention on Dean Martin's old tv series, and The Drifters, one of the top 'pops' groups, supply the musical portions.

The Goldiggers, who also dance, are captained by Patti Pivarnick. The other five girls are sisters Linda and Maria Elena Alberici, Robin Whitley, Peggy Gohl, and Joyce Garro.

In the 18 years that have passed since The Drifters recorded their hit "There Goes My Baby," the four-member ensemble has sold more than 20,000,000 singles and 6,000,000 albums.

The revue is sponsored here by the East Syracuse Police Benevolent Assn.

It took six generations of Beams to be satisfied that this is the best way to make 90-proof sour mash whiskey.

With 182 years of experience, you'd think we could make this whiskey faster than we do. We could, but we won't. We make 101-month-old Beam's Sour Mash Whiskey to be enjoyed, not guzzled.

We're not sure why slowing a minimum of 101 months is the secret of this whiskey. All we know is that at 90-Proof it yields a Sour Mash of truly exceptional taste.

Enjoy it without hurrying. Savor it the same way we make it. Slowly and leisurely.

Beam family members, Jerry and Booker, check a barrel of Beam Sour Mash Whiskey as it ages 101 long, slow months.

★★★★½
A beautifully acted film...the performances are all superb. Kathleen Quinlan's performance as Deborah truly illuminates the whole film. She is so terribly convincing in this impossibly demanding role that there is little doubt that we will be seeing a great deal of her in the future.
